Puglia Unveiled Discover Southern Italy's Gem with Unique Experiential Tours

8 DAYS: Friday, November 6-Friday, November 13, 2026

Puglia is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. With its breathtaking landscapes, rich history, and delectable cuisine, this enchanting region promises an unforgettable experience. Whether you're exploring historic towns, or indulging in local delicacies, Puglia offers a slice of Italy that is truly unique.

SINCE OUR FIRST JOURNEY TO MYSTERIOUS PUGLIA, The Travel Club has discovered there's even more to explore in this southern, sun-soaked province. Join us in "the real Italy" as we reveal the art, culture, tradition and cuisine of Puglia. Our home base during this vacation is the charming hill-top town of Ostuni – known as the White City for its stunning white buildings and offers panoramic views of the surrounding countryside and the Adriatic Sea. The historic center is a labyrinth of narrow, winding streets perfect for exploring and lined with shops and restaurants. Renowned for its olive oil, burrata cheese, fresh seafood and pasta dishes, Puglia is a food lover's paradise. Our excursions include elegant Lecce - an "open air exhibition" of Baroque architecture - where we'll have lunch and enjoy a Tarantola performance; and a visit to seaside Otranto with its massive Aragonese castle. Enjoy an experiential guided visit to the medieval gardens of Giardini di Grata and partake in a tasting in the field. Explore the unique character of Alberobello, famous for its trulli—traditional stone huts with conical roofs—and a UNESCO World Heritage site that feels like stepping into a fairytale. Visit the vibrant port city of Bari and the stunning coastal town of Polignano a Mare, known for its dramatic cliffs, crystal-clear waters, and charming old town. Enjoy the morning at Masseria Seppunisi - an historic farmhouse featuring traditional architecture, characterized by stone walls, a rustic aesthetic, and surrounding agricultural land. Meet the cows of the dairy herd, view the dairy, visit the cellars and watch a demonstration on how mozzarella and burrata are made and even have an opportunity to craft your own cheese – followed by a tasting of the farm’s cheeses, focaccia, cured meats and a glass of the local wine. In the afternoon we’ll visit the charming farmhouse of Masseria Casina Vitale for a cooking lesson followed by dinner. We’ll end this amazing trip with a visit to Matera - a unique and historic city renowned for its ancient cave dwellings known as "Sassi." It is one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world and has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Day 7: Excursion to Matera

Today we'll journey to Matera, one of the most spectacular cities in Italy and one of the oldest inhabited cities in the world. Matera is made up of rock-cut caves in which its citizens have traditionally lived. The town was named a UNESCO world heritage site in the '90s, and was named one of the European Union's two Capitals of Culture in 2019—quite the coup considering its post-World War II reputation as “the shame of Italy.” We'll enjoy a guided visit of the “Sassi,” followed by lunch at a local restaurant. Enjoy a farewell dinner at the hotel tonight. (BLD)

Matera, Basilicata's jewel, may be the third-longest continuously inhabited human settlement in the world. Natural caves in the tufa limestone, exposed as the Gravina cut its gorge, attracted the first inhabitants perhaps 7000 years ago. More elaborate structures were built atop them. Today, looking across the gorge to Matera's huddled sassi (cave dwellings) it seems you've been transported back to the ancient Holy Land. Indeed, the 'Città Sotterranea' (Underground City') has often been used for biblical scenes in films and TV. The sassi, many little-more than one-room caves, once contained such appalling poverty and unthinkable living conditions that in the 1950s Matera was denounced as the 'Shame of Italy', and the sassi-dwellers were moved on. Only in later decades has the value of this extraordinarily built environment been recognized.

Day 8: Return to Boston

This morning transfer to Brindisi airport for our flight to Rome and our transatlantic flight back to Boston. (B)
